SAINT-MALO

THE TOWN OF PRIVATEERS

In Saint-Malo, walk in the footsteps of great men such as Jacques Cartier, Robert Surcouf, Duguay-Trouin, Chateaubriand, and many other great explorers and writers ... they have all shaped the town's history and built its strong identity of seafarers and adventurers.

Visit the narrow streets of the old walled town and the captivating dwellings of the privateers, as well as the shops, cafes and restaurants that make Saint-Malo a must-see destination. Reach the ramparts by foot from the hotel, at low tide by the beach, or at high tide along the Sillon promenade...

DISCOVER LE NOUVEAU MONDE

FOUR STAR HOTEL

A contemporary reinterpretation of Saint-Malo's heritage, the Nouveau Monde transports you to faraway places and distant times, the East India Trading Company, the trading posts, the spice and coffee routes. Close to the old walled town, right on the beach, the Nouveau Monde Hotel offers 83 rooms, a sea view restaurant and bar.

A spa, an underwater shower jet pool, a steam room, solarium ... everything has been done to make your stay a hiatus of well-being and the exotic.

ROOMS

AN INVITATION TO VOYAGE

Sea view or south facing, the rooms inspire luxury, peace and escapism ...

A way of life where charm and elegance invite you to explore distant islands, Mauritius, Bourbon, Martinique.

A palette of colours; celadon green, sky blue, saffron yellow, pearl grey associated with noble materials. A thousand details take you to other horizons.

RESTAURATION

A WORLD TOUR OF FLAVOURS

The great navigators left to explore the world and brought back a treasure of flavours. The “7 Mers” restaurant opens onto a vast sea view and offers a true culinary adventure across world cuisine.

The chef rivals his talent and ingenuity for recipes full of the region's rich produce that have been revisited with a touch of exoticism. Weigh anchor and set sail for distant shores on a journey into the heart of the senses.

Enjoy a drink at “Le Comptoir” bar, and relive the days when ships returned to port, loaded with spices, cocoa, coffee, vanilla ...

POOL & SPA

WELL-BEING ON THE OPEN SEA

The indoor heated swimming pool is punctuated with underwater shower jets, geysers, a counter current swimming lane, massage seats, a bubble pool ... Make the most of the steam room, solarium and lounge area for a moment to unwind.

The Spa offers a wide range of facial and body treatments: scrubs, massages, body masks. So many rituals inspired by regions across the world, take you on an encounter with well-being.
